The book I was so looking forward to reading "Unmasking the Narcissistic Pastor" finally arrived and turned out to be a huge disappointment. It looked like an AI job, poorly formatted and poorly written. So I cannot recommend that book.
However I've found a better book called "The Christian Narcissist" by Brian Howard. This is a short read, very well written and full of helpful advice. It offers pointers on how to recognize this Wolf in Sheep's clothing. I've learned an awful lot about this subject. One of my learnings is: the sooner you escape, the shorter your recovery time will be from severe distress. The Bible tells us to avoid narcissists. Not manage them. Not fix them. But avoid them. Not an easy truth, but one that leads to freedom.
